
DSR777 ASCII File Generation

Overview A file is generated containing basic customer information merged across multiple files used for the purpose of downloading customer information in ASCII format to PC's.

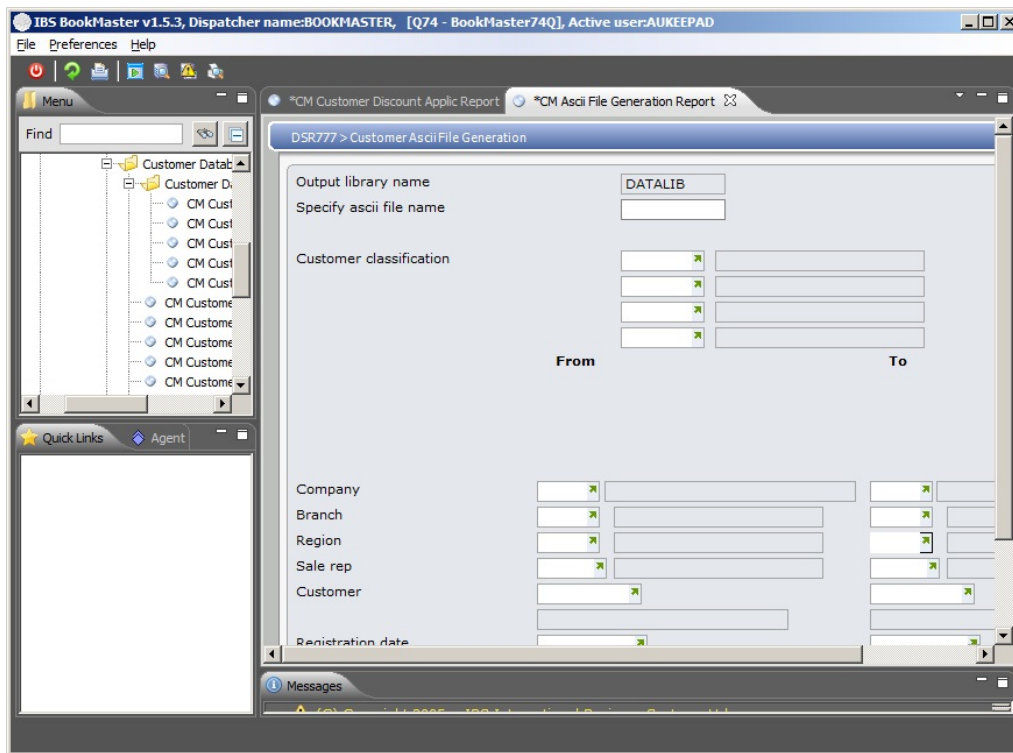

Explanation

The file contains most customer masterfile related columns including 10 user defined classifications, their values and descriptions. This is defined in TMSDS/DSR777-1 - Customer classification selection & arrangement which download library to use is determined by the setup in */DATALIB.

Follow up

Printouts

This is printout program.

Selection of the following is required:

- Output Library name
- Specify ASCII file name
- Customer Classification
- Type of Business
- Market
- Company
- Branch
- Region
- Sales Representative
- Customer
- Registration Date
- Post code