EDO320 EDI: BookNet

Product Catalogue Download

This program allows the user to select a product range, or published date range for ISBNs to be written out into the product download file.

1. Select option EDIFACT Product Catalogue Download from Base Modules> Distribution> Order Processing & Billing> Order Processing> Other> EDI Orders> EDI-BOOKNET> BOOKET EDI menu.

EDO320 EDIFACT Product Catalogue Download panel is displayed.

Relevant Fields

Catalogue   This is the name of the catalogue.

Price code 1   This code is used to establish the first price code applicable to the catalogue.

Price code 2	This code is used to establish the second price code applicable to the catalogue.
Remarks	This field is used to enter any remarks regarding the catalogue.
Test or prod	This field allows you to select whether it is a test catalogue or the cata is actually being produced.
Release date	This is the date the catalogue will be released.
Last chg date	Change
	The time period within which changes are to occur is specified by a st date and a finishing date

Last chg date

This is the date that the catalogue was last changed.

2. Run in batch and press <ENTER>.